TO THE READER.

THE Reasons of this Sale are in plain English two. 1. The Gratification of the Gentlemen of the Long Robe. 2. A moderate Gain proposed by the undertaker, and whatever may be the success as to the latter, he pleases himself that he may possibly attain his end in the former. And tho the Books might be Justifiably Commended as answering the Epithites given them, yet being really good he thinks they need none; and if they were bad, to represent them directly good, would betray the folly, and argue the ignorance of the Representer himself. The Gentlemen the Buyers really are, and ought to be the most Competent Judges themselves, and may censure and remark as they please: Its therefore desired for their further satisfaction that they would come and view the Qualifications, and Editions of the Books three whole days preceding the Sale.

This Auction will begin on Monday the fourteenth day of this instant February, 1687, at the Auction-house in Ave-Mary-Lane, over against the Black-swan, near Ludgate-Street, from the Hours of 9 in the Morning, to 12, and from 2 in the Afternoon, to 6 in the Evening, continuing daily till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who bids most, is the Buyer, and if any Difference arise which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books shall forthwith be Exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, they Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid at the Place of Sale within a Week after the Auction is ended; where the Book or Books so bought, shall be ready to be delivered.
